The art of fine dining

It is the legacy of a legendary chef. For it is he who masterminds a seven course meal, a sit-down dinner or a buffet. It is he who makes meal for hundreds taste like they've been plated and prepared by hand for a table of two. For it is he who walks the dusty markets picking out the freshest and greenest supply. It is his garnish that makes food look as good as it tastes. It is his careful anticipation of a hundred palates that sets the tone for an unforgettable breakfast, brunch, high tea, cocktail or dinner.
